

Roger and Judith Read Study Abroad
Undergraduate Scholarship
Center for International and Intercultural Education

In 2007, CIIE received a gift from Roger and Judith Read for Undergraduate Study Abroad Scholarship, extending the legacy of their uncle and aunt, Gerald and Victoria Read.

To apply for this undergraduate study abroad scholarship, a student must be accepted for one of the international study abroad opportunities sponsored by the Center for International and Intercultural Education, international internships, or overseas student teaching.

Application Procedure:

Complete this application and return to the Center for International and Intercultural Education, 215 White Hall, by the first Friday of Spring Semester.
