

Reapplication Admission

Reapplication admission is for the student who has already earned a master's degree from the College of Education, Health, and Human Services. This admission allows the student to reenroll for up to six years. There is no application fee and transcripts are not required.